Top Nazi Had Been Reported Dead

Argentine Police Hold Bormann Suspect

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—A one-armed man suspected of being Martin Bormann, Hitler's long missing deputy, was being grilled by Argentine police today. The suspect gave the name of Walter Flegel.

Interior Minister Alfredo Vitolo told a TV audience Wednesday night that the suspect obviously was a German and had most of the missing Nazi's physical characteristics.

There were two big differences. The captured man appeared to be about 48 years old, whereas Bormann, if alive, would be 60. The Martin Bormann of Hitler's day had both arms, while the man held here has had an arm amputated. It was possible, however, that Bormann might have lost an arm in escaping from Berlin or since.

Vitolo said a special police unit captured the self-styled Flegel last week at Zarate, 55 miles north of Buenos Aires. He indicated Argentine authorities are inclined to believe he really is Bormann.

The suspect is being held incommunicado at central police headquarters in Buenos Aires.

Vitolo would not elaborate further on the case.

Bormann was last reported trying to make his getaway from the Berlin bunker where Hitler died. Testimony was given at the Nuernberg war crimes trial that he was killed, but his body was never found.

Although a German court officially recorded him as dead in 1954, rumors that Bormann is still alive have cropped up periodically.

The hunt for Nazi leaders who fled after Germany's collapse in World War II has centered in Argentina.

A band of Israeli commandos seized Adolph Eichmann just outside Buenos Aires in May and whisked him to Israel to stand trial for directing the extermination program in which six million Jews died.

The Eichmann case led to a strain in Israeli-Argentine relations and brought to light that the Jews still are hunting Nazi leaders suspected of hiding out in South America.

Five Arrested In Ohio Raids

Bookie, Lottery Operators Cited

CLEVELAND (AP) — Federal agents made five arrests in northeastern Ohio as part of a nationwide crackdown on suspected bookmakers and lottery operators. One of those arrested Wednesday was described as the gambling czar of Summit County for 35 years.

The Internal Revenue Service said the persons arrested failed to obtain $50 gambling stamps and pay excise taxes on money they had handled.

William J. Griffiths, 64, of Barberton, and his son, Jack, 40, of Akron were arrested by special IRS intelligence agents on charges of bookmaking operations since July 1, 1955. They were charged in a 59-count information filed by U.S. Attorney Russell E. Ake.

In Cleveland, Samuel E. Fort, 27, was arrested as the operator of a policy racket when IRS agents raided the rear yard of an East Side apartment. Miss Nancy Burns, 40, and Mrs. Florence Nelson, 40, were taken into custody in the same raid. They were charged with being policy writers.

The IRS in Washington said that agents, cooperating with local police, swooped down on 63 locations in 22 states, and made 93 arrests in 38 cities throughout the country. Elsewhere in Ohio, two men were arrested at Sharonville, near Cincinnati, in a raid on a room adjoining a cafe.

The elder Griffiths is a former owner of the Ascot Park race track. He was arrested at "Griffiths Park" in Clinton. The son was arrested later at the Loyal Oak golf course near Akron, formerly owned by the father, who reputedly is a millionaire. Agents said the father and son booked bets on horse races, fights, baseball, football and basketball at the Clinton spot.

Both men were released under $5,000 bond each, pending an Oct. 31 hearing.

In the Cleveland raid, agents seized policy slips, books, drawing slips and $387. Agents said

Two Admit Kicking Grocer to Death

CINCINNATI (AP)—City detectives expected to file murder and robbery charges against two men who they said admitted kicking and robbing a 63-year-old one-legged grocer last Monday night. William E. Patton, the victim, died several hours after being found unconscious on the floor of his grocery.

The men held are Harry Hollis, 26, and his brother-in-law, Claude Maul, 19.

Maul surrendered without a struggle Wednesday after police traced him to his aunt's home. The officers intercepted a telephone call he made to a girl friend in which he asked help in getting out of town.

Hollis had been arrested previously. At first, each man blamed the other for the actual slaying of Patton but both admitted having participated in the robbery, police said.

The two men were brought face to face for questioning. Detective Lyle Young said both finally admitted kicking Patton after Hollis had thrown pepper in the elderly man's eyes and forced him to the floor.

The cash register in Patton's store was looted.

14-Room Annex Would Cost $272,000

Addition to Lisbon School Considered

LISBON — Lisbon Village School Board members discussed the addition of 14 school rooms at McKinley School at a special meeting Wednesday night.

The proposed two-story addition would contain seven rooms on each floor. Additional land for the playground, which is available adjoining the present school property if it can be purchased, would be required.

The board had first planned to build an eight-room school on a new site in the northwest section of village at a cost of $391,071.

The 14-room addition to McKinley school, designed by Kling and Frost, Youngs own architectural firm, would cost about $272,000. The figure does not include the equipment, estimated at $1,000 a room, toilet facilities and one new boiler, Supt. R. C. Armitage said.

Armitage said by 1962 the school system will need about eight additional rooms, plus a kindergarten room. The 14-room annex would take care of the increasing enrollment through 1970. If the annex is built, the present eighth grade classes would be moved from the high school. The surging enrollment is expected to level off by 1970, Armitage said.

All board members favored the 14-room annex instead of the new school. Armitage also presented his recommendations on a campaign to secure passage of a bond issue if the board approves the annex.

Six members of the Lisbon Boosters Club attended the meeting. Monty Muntean, Gail Lewis, Lodge Thorne, Ray Davies, John W. Peterson and Bill Hiel asked Armitage to reconsider the ban on fifth and sixth grade football which the superintendent would not allow to continue except under school personnel supervision. Initially, outsiders were to supervise the program, thereby jeopardizing the students' coverage under the school insurance setup.

Under the new arrangement worked out last night, Barry James, a teacher, will take over the program. He will be paid an additional $175, by the board, and the Booster Club will furnish the gear needed to outfit the boys.

Armitage said the revised plans are satisfactory to him.

The ban on fifth and sixth grade football is believed one of the factors that resulted in the resignation of football coach Edwin "Bud" Bucher who will give up the post at the end of this season.

Miss Bardot Attempts To Kill Self

MENTON, France (AP) — Film star Brigitte Bardot was reported out of danger today following a suicide attempt, apparently made in a fit of nervous depression.

It was learned from the St. Francis Neurological Clinic in Nice, where she is now under treatment, that she slashed her wrist with a razor blade and took an overdose of sleeping tablets Wednesday night.

The sexy blonde French movie queen has been reported having serious marital difficulties with her husband, actor Jacques Charrier. He has been on a separate hunting vacation in southwest France and left there suddenly this morning, presumably to rush to Brigitte's bedside.

The actress, who was 26 Wednesday, was found lying unconscious at the home of friends in the village of Cabroles, near the Italian frontier four miles from Menton.

2 Youths Jailed on Contributing Count

LISBON — Two East Liverpool youths were sentenced to the county jail by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin Wednesday for contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old and two 17-year-old East Liverpool boys.

Joseph E. Boso, 18, and James Buzzard, 18, each were given six-month sentences. Boso received an additional six months for probation violation.

Mrs. Thelma L. Ward, 49, of East Liverpool, also charged with contributing, was placed under $500 bond when she pleaded not guilty yesterday. She and Herbert Mellett, 18, of East Liverpool, and the two 17-year-old boys will receive hearings Oct. 6.

The 16-year-old boy was placed in the custody of the Columbiana County Welfare Department. Charges were filed after a car containing the youths figured in a mishap Tuesday in East Liverpool and police discovered they had been drinking.

It was later ascertained that the group had ransacked two cars at a tavern on Rt. 30, northwest of East Liverpool.

Huge New York Crowds Cheer Nixon, Kennedy

Veep Points for New England; Rival Plans Brief Rest

By The Associated Press
Frenzied throngs of supporters had both presidential candidates beaming Wednesday night as they campaigned at opposite ends of New York State, trying to sew up its big wad of 45 electoral votes.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon received the longest, wildest ovation since he hit the campaign road in the heavily Republican territory of eastern Long Island. His day had begun less auspiciously in the boroughs of New York City, where his motorcade drew sparse crowds. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller made the trip with him.

Buoyed By Cheering Crowds
Nixon's Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, was buoyed also by cheering, spillover crowds in upstate Rochester and Buffalo, GOP strongholds for President Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956.

Elsewhere on the political landscape, a survey of governors attending the Southern Governors' Conference at Hot Springs, Ark., showed they thought there was a chance that Nixon could carry 11 of 15 Southern and border states in November. Democratic governors said they don't think he'll make any such sweep, but conceded it's possible.

Kennedy headed through another string of upstate New York cities today, and then planned a one-day rest at his home in Hyannis Port, Mass. Nixon pointed for New England, with stops in Vermont, New Hampshire and Boston.

Blasts Ike Administration
Kennedy told 21,000 persons who jammed the Buffalo War Memorial Auditorium that the Eisenhower administration is "a government frozen in the ice of its own indifference."

At earlier campaign stops, Kennedy said Nixon was the man who led the fight against adequate medical care for the aged. During the day Nixon hinted he would bring brainy Democrats into his administration if elected; "America cannot afford to do less than use the best we have regardless of which party they belong to."

Man of Experience
Again Nixon played strong emphasis on picturing himself as a man of long experience in government, a man who has faced up to Russia's Nikita S. Khrushchev. At Columbia City, Ind., Democratic vice presidential nominee Lyndon B. Johnson blamed the administration for a new economic recession and a price squeeze on farmers.

The Republican veep candidate, Henry Cabot Lodge, invaded Texas, pledging strong leadership if his party wins in November. Lodge discussed foreign affairs in most of his talks.

Nikita to Meet With Macmillan

May Remain In U.S. For Another Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Nikita S. Khrushchev meets today with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan amid signs he intends to stay on another week as communism's star performer at the United Nations.

His talk with Macmillan marks the first summit level East-West discussions since mid-May when the Paris summit parley blew up in an angry dispute over the U2 plane incident.

Ten days after arriving, Khrushchev gives no evidence of running out of steam in his furious one-man campaign of denunciations and sweet talk.

In between trips to the U. N. to lead the Soviet delegation, he has conferred privately with 10 neutral-minded foreign leaders, zipped through a half dozen nighttime receptions and kept up a steady flow of comment to newsmen.

All the time, Khrushchev has tried to keep everyone guessing about how long he will stay in New York.

Security agents assigned to guard him groaned Wednesday night when—with a straight face—Khrushchev told a well-wisher at a Nepal reception that he hoped to ring in the New Year with him.

His future plans became a bit clearer today with a report that he intends to throw a big reception of his own next Tuesday at his police-ringed Park Avenue residence.

Khrushchev plans to head this weekend, for the big Soviet-owned mansion in Glen Cove, Long Island, to rest and to plot what kind of exit he wants to make to a visit which has been a crude propaganda show to Western eyes.

Soviet informants, who initially whispered he would stay 10 days

10 African Issues on Agenda

U.N. Assembly Debate Scheduled on Congo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Africa was assured top billing in the U.N. General Assembly today as the Assembly Steering Committee moved to place 10 African issues on the session's bulging agenda.

The 21-nation committee voted in quick succession Wednesday night to schedule Assembly debate on the explosive Congo issue and rival proposals by the United States and the Soviet Union designed to win the friendship of the new African member states.

The committee earlier approved debate on such perennial items as the race situation in South Africa, Algerian independence and a number of trusteeship questions.

With 15 new African nations already taken into the U.N. fold and Nigeria slated to become the 99th member, probably next week, 25 African members will have a voice in the debates.

After a surprise turnabout by the West, the committee decided in 10 minutes Wednesday night to call for debate on the Congo question over which it had wrangled for more than an hour the previous night.

U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth said he was not opposing the Congo's inclusion on the agenda since the Soviet Union had agreed to a suggestion by Ceylon to modify the title of the item to "The Situation in the Republic of the Congo." Previously it had carried the Soviet title "Threat to the Political Independence and Territorial Integrity of the Republic of the Congo," and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin in introducing it had accused Belgium of aggression and continued colonialism.

A new East-West clash was foreseen in the Assembly when the rival U.S. and Soviet items on Africa reach the floor.

The U.S. proposal puts before the Assembly the five-point program for aid to the new countries of Africa outlined by President Eisenhower in his Assembly speech last Thursday.

It would counter a Soviet item calling for granting of independence to colonial countries and peoples. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev called for this in his speech before the Assembly last Friday.

The Steering Committee also agreed to debate on the question of Mauritania, to which France is granting independence. Morocco charges this will rob her of the territory rightfully hers.

Other African items marked for Assembly consideration include treatment of persons of Indian origin in Southwest Africa and the future of Ruanda-Urundi, a trusteeship territory administered by Belgium.

Soviet Actions In Hungary To Be Aired

Macmillan Scheduled To Give Address to Organization Today

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan brings the cool voice of Britain to the hot deadlock in the United Nations today, but diplomats said he is not acting as a go-between for President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Macmillan had a date for a private talk with Khrushchev, however, shortly after his speech in the General Assembly.

Khrushchev's lieutenants lost three more important and bitterly fought skirmishes in the Assembly Steering Committee.

The Steering Committee voted to bring before the 98 nations in the General Assembly the questions of Soviet actions in Hungary and an airing of Communist China's operations in Tibet. The 11-4 vote came after a long and determined Soviet effort to kill both items.

Vote Down Soviet Proposals
The Steering Committee also voted down Soviet proposals to open the General Assembly immediately to disarmament debate, bypassing debate in the Political Committee and interrupting the general policy statements now being given by representatives of each U.N. member. It was reported that Khrushchev wanted an opportunity to address the Assembly again.

Although British officials insisted Macmillan did not come to New York to try to mediate between Eisenhower and Khrushchev, one posed the question: "Suppose Khrushchev agreed to discuss the RB47 case. Would Eisenhower refuse?"

This was a reference to the destruction of an American plane by Soviet fighters last July 1. Two crewmen are held prisoners by the Soviets. The other were killed. The Soviet Union twice vetoed proposals in the Security Council for an investigation of the case.

Macmillan tried to mediate in Paris. Aides said he would not renew the effort in New York.

They said he came to the U.N. prepared to present a dispassionate examination of the issues dividing East and West before the Assembly.

Macmillan talked Wednesday

Can We Survive An Atomic War?

Companies, Communities Can Do a Job

By RAY CROMLEY
(Third of Four Articles)

WASHINGTON — You and your community or your company can work out a practical way to save your lives if an H-bomb raid ever came.

Some businesses already have made these plans. One is the Stanford Research Institute, at Palo Alto, Calif.

The Institute and its 4,000 to 5,000 employees are in the San Francisco Bay region. In the overall area are key air fields, a missile plant, strategic oil refineries, a major U.S. city.

If the Russians attacked in force, it's estimated that without protection a fourth of the Institute's employees and their families would be killed by blast, virtually all the rest by fallout.

This assumes five million ton H-bomb strikes, and a total fallout 40 to 70 times more than is needed to kill a man.

TO MEET THIS THREAT, Institute men have converted the basement of Building No. 1 into a 30,000 square foot shelter for 3,000 men, women and children. Building plans include a basement to shelter 2,000 more.

These basements can take blasts of five pounds per square inch. They would give blast protection from a five million ton H-bomb five miles away. The expected 25,000 roentgen fallout would be cut to a mere 100.

Thirteen inches of concrete in the roof and two floors above the basement give fallout protection. The basement floor, 15 feet below grade, is shielded by the surrounding earth from radiation on the ground.

An example of how a community can act is found in Burbank, Calif., where civil defense men are set to push vigorously a plan to get the citizens of each neighborhood in the city to buy and put underground a 100-man "neighborhood" shelter.

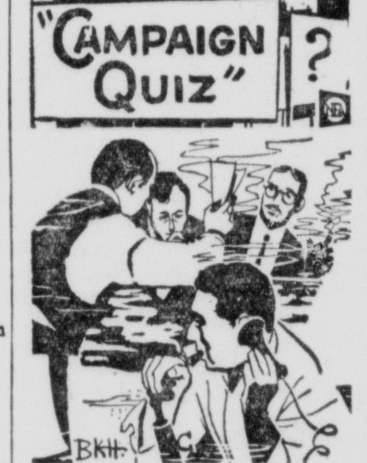

NEIGHBORHOODS would be organized into "shelter districts." They'd finance the shelters with "Shelter Bonds" in the same way Sewer Districts bond themselves to pay for sewers over the years. A bill to allow this will be submitted to the California State Legislature in January.

These shelters, like giant half sections of steel pipe, would be 25 by 48 feet, made of corrugated steel and braced and buried under three feet of earth. They would be equipped with emergency power, chemical sanitation facilities, air blowers, cement floors, emergency food, first aid supplies and a safety entrance.

They would be fallout proof. They have blast protection sufficient to assure survival at about one mile from the surface detonation of a million ton H-bomb.

Cost of the currently planned shelter is $18,000. The estimated cost in quantity is $14,000.

Burbank is about ready to let bids for the first local model shelter.

CUTAWAY DRAWING (above) and photograph (below) show the 100-person underground blast and fallout shelter which Burbank, Calif., is proposing for its "neighborhood" approach to civil defense. Shelter was designed by U. S. Naval Radiological Defense Laboratory in San Francisco. Model is at Camp Parks, Calif.

ter and expects it to be ready in late January.

AT THE STANFORD Institute each family has been assigned an area in one of the basement's five major wings and corridors.

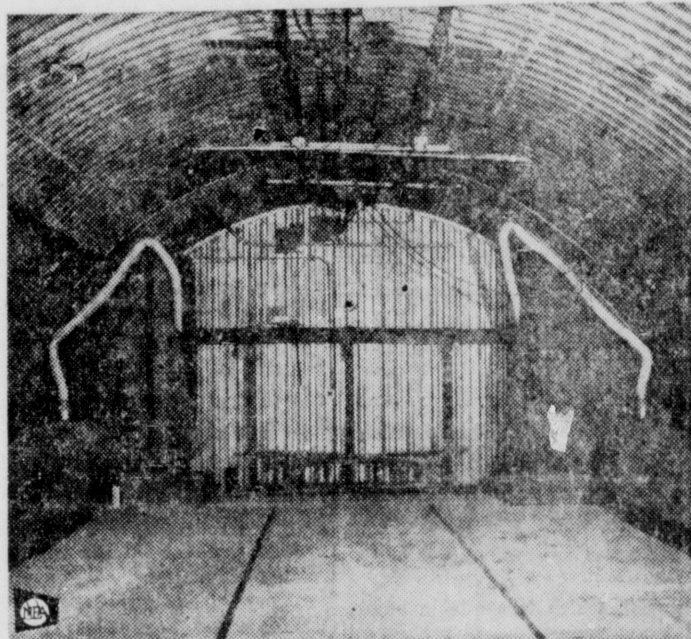

A 14-day minimum-diet dry ration for 3,000 people has been stored in Building No. 1. Water would be available from an emergency well.

Several doctors and their families have been invited to join in the Institute's shelter plan to provide medical services. The Institute will lay in emergency medical supplies.

Toilets have been installed underground. A motor generator has been put in and two weeks of fuel stored to provide power for communications, lighting, sewage disposal and for pumping water.

The basement is provided with shortwave transceivers which could send and receive information about the attack. There would be standby emergency communications with the sheriff, police, Red Cross and the Military Amateur Radio net. Radiation measuring instruments are stored.

STAFF MEMBERS have been assigned the jobs they'll have after the bomb hits. One is responsible for rationing food and water, others for public health, communications, fuel and power, sanitation. One man is to measure radiation, detect radiation leaks and determine when it's okay to leave the shelter.

A handbook has been issued, telling the staff members and their families what to do now and what to do if an attack comes. One pertinent piece of advice:

"Staff members who live within five miles of the Stanford Research Institute and have access to bicycles may make better time that way."

The reason is simple. Roads will be jam-packed. You might never get there in time by car.

Personnel Additions Cause Dissension at Massillon Hospital

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Personnel additions which apparently have created staff dissension at Massillon State Hospital are merely intended to give Massillon the same organization as other Ohio mental hospitals, the state mental hygiene commissioner said Wednesday.

Management Planner Frank J. Tolison of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction is in Massillon hearing hospital staff members' "problems and perplexities," Henry Luidens, explained.

The division of mental hygiene has announced that it plans to put two registered nurses—for training, teaching and to survey quality of service—between the hospital's director of nurses and the supervisors of male and female attendants. The nurses will go to work next month.

Dr. Luidens said Massillon is one of the few state hospitals where this organization is not already in effect. There will be no downgrading of the supervisors, who are psychiatric aides, or changes in pay, he said.

The commissioner said there have been suggestions that attendants and aides might call in sick if nothing was done. He said Tolison will report to him, and that he will visit the hospital after studying the report.

Ike Returns to Presidential Campaign Limelight Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—President Eisenhower returns to the 1960 presidential campaign limelight tonight for the first time since the Republican National Convention here in July.

Eisenhower will speak via closed-circuit television to GOP closed-circuit television to GOP Vice President Richard M. Nixon, making his White House bid in the East, will join the speech-making from Boston.

The Republican National Committee estimates 40,000 to 50,000 of the party faithful will shell out nearly $2 million for tonight's dinners.

They also will hear:

Henry Cabot Lodge, GOP vice-presidential candidate, from Los Angeles; New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, from New York

City; Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, from Houston, and Republican National Chairman Thruston Morton, from Philadelphia.

The live broadcast portion of the closed-circuit program will begin at 9 p.m. EST. In Oregon and Washington state it will be broadcast via video tape at 10:30 p.m. EST.

Dinner rallies in 24 states and the District of Columbia will be included. For the first time in these Republican electronic get-togethers, six Southern cities will be included.

Eisenhower will speak from the grand ballroom of the Conrad Hilton Hotel. He and Nixon have been allotted eight minutes of the TV time. Lodge ranks next with six minutes.

At 8:40 p.m. EST Gov. William G. Stratton of Illinois will introduce the President to 2,000 persons who will pay $15 each into the United Republican Fund for the privilege of watching him broadcast.

The President will begin his address to the other rallies—some of them $100-a-plate affairs—at 9:25 p.m. EST.

Eisenhower will stay overnight in Chicago and will address a convention of the Polish American Congress Friday morning before returning to Washington.

SURVEY APPROVED

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—The Middletown City Commission Wednesday night approved the city's participation in a survey for a possible regional airport in southwestern Ohio. Middletown will contribute $500 toward the survey with Hamilton, Cincinnati and Dayton contributing the remainder of the necessary $5,000.

Warren County has been suggested as the most logical site for such an airport which would serve the four cities and smaller communities. There never has been any estimate as to the possible cost.

STRIKERS TO RETURN

CINCINNATI (AP)—Members of Teamsters' Local 100 were scheduled to go back to work today on two Cincinnati street widening projects. The Teamsters have been on strike since Sept. 19 to support their objections to foremen for the Walter Kunz Construction Co. driving pickup trucks.

They agreed to go back to work at a meeting Wednesday with Federal Mediator James G. Bentley. Negotiators said the contractor agreed no jobs of union members would be taken by supervisory employees. He also agreed to withdraw a suit for a restraining order against the union and to withdraw charges of unfair labor practices.

No Cause For Panic

There are still, unfortunately, too many people on the Western front of the East-West cold war who throw themselves into panic whenever Nikita Khrushchev delivers one of the ill-mannered public pronouncements at which he and his fellow bully-boys in the Kremlin are so practiced.

The panickers abound despite the continuing evidence of the last 40-odd years that their reaction is one of the things that make the Red bosses keep on pushing the panic button.

THEY VIEW Khrushchev's latest diatribe as a new crisis for the United Nations, whereas it is simply another development in the same crisis that has faced the United Nations since the Soviet Union cast the first of its 90 vetoes in the Security Council, supported a war against the United Nations in Korea, ignored the basic principles of the United Nations Charter by crushing the Hungarian Freedom Fighters, stalked out of the United Nations-sponsored disarmament talks and so forth, ad infinitum.

The panickers shiver at the prospect of a deeper cold war freeze, whereas Khrushchev — and Stalin before him, and Lenin before that, and Marx before that — has made it abundantly clear all along that there will be a cold war, albeit with successive periods of deep freeze and slight thaw, as long as any segment of the world's population refuses to roll over and playdead for the Communist Conspiracy.

THE PANICKERS quake at Khrushchev's declaration that there can be no disarmament without his reorganization of the United Nations, whereas it should be obvious to all that if Khrushchev had any serious intention of achieving disarmament he could have brought it about any time during the more than a decade that it has been in the negotiation stage.

The panickers attach frightening significance to the fact that Khrushchev made the United Nations speech at all, whereas he has been making similar speeches before the world community all summer long.

Such speeches by the denizens of the Kremlin are completely in character. When a Communist does not get his way, he reacts by flying into a violent rage, like a spoiled child.

Khrushchev blew up the Paris summit conference last May because he was outraged by the certain signs that the conference was not going to give him what he wanted, which consequent concessions by them on Berlin and other issues.

HE IS TRYING now to sabotage the machinery of the United Nations because it has proved so effective in preventing him from achieving his immediate objectives in the Congo.

That Khrushchev made the speech he did should be no more surprising than a spoiled child's tantrum when his path is crossed. And experts and amateurs alike on child-rearing generally agree that parental panic is not the way to cure a spoiled child's tantrums.

Communist strategy should not inspire complacency, but neither should it inspire panic. The only way the East-West struggle will be won by the forces of freedom is to answer Eastern attacks with cold, calm, calculation — purposeful persistence.

No Sign of Violence

When skeptics wonder what is wrong with the 1960 presidential campaign, they sound like those fellows who are always wondering what is wrong with baseball.

There's nothing wrong that wouldn't be overcome in a jiffy by color and excitement.

Reports of crowds turning out to see Richard Nixon and John Kennedy indicate they are doing a solid job in personal campaigning. Henry Cabot Lodge has been doing all right. No one is keeping track of Lyndon Johnson, but wherever he is he presumably is doing a workmanlike job of concealing the gap between the part of the Democratic coalition he speaks for and the opposite part that the Democratic presidential candidate speaks for.

The trouble is, everything seems to be happening at a distance. This is not necessarily because events are of any less importance than they were in previous campaigns, but they seem relatively less important.

Even without that five-ring circus in the United Nations, there would have been the same sense of being blanked in the 1960 presidential campaign by superseding events. Perhaps the first of the television debates will jar the campaign back into the forefront of public attention, but that is asking a great deal for what is only a technical gimmick for livening a standard political process.

Before television and before radio, when political debates were reported exclusively by newspapers, there were campaigns that set the country on its ear. The campaigns of the McKinley era were that kind. There never was any question of the liveliness of the campaigns of Franklin Roosevelt, even when he was a shoo-in. Voters were still mad at Herbert Hoover.

The contenders were never in danger of seeming to be actors on distant stages. They were real. The issues they discussed were immediate. Controversy was vibrant. It was

Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

A laundryman, sent to the United Nations as a delegate, quit, flew back swiftly, disgusted with diplomatic routines and returned to his laundry vowing "Never again."

This is too bad. Anybody in the laundry business would seem to have special advantages in the United Nations. First the faith everything will "come out in the wash"; secondly, the organization needs men of starch.

The United Nations is a world laundromat, into which a tremendous load of dirty linen is dumped for cleansing.

Its purpose is to clean the world of hatreds, envies, suspicions and violence, tough work with or without the right soap-powders. "Come clean" could be a slogan in all languages.

There are delegates who throw flatirons around like guided missiles, turn on the cold water and burn holes in cuffs and collars just for the hell of it. But a good laundryman belongs there.

He is accustomed to dirty linen, towels from fight clubs and flatwork mixed in with delicate fabrics. This fast-retiring, delegate puts all laundrymen in a bad light. It is hoped the laundrymen of the world don't follow his example and let the U.N. diplomacy go unwashed.

"DARKEST AFRICA" is now so much in the brilliant spotlight that were Stanley to return, he would exclaim "Wrong address for Dr. Livingstone. I presume." Things have changed so much that lions, elephants and loud. No one had to be reminded that the country was engaged in the quadrennial election of a chief executive.

Perhaps everything will come to life between now and mid-October, when public interest should be at a crackling climax. There may even be the revival of some old chestnut about a favorite dog. Or some genius may think up a truly transcendent issue that will array the candidates and their seconds against each other in head-on debate.

If nothing like this happens, only one conclusion can be reached, because only one conclusion will be tenable.

The country will not have shown itself to be in a mood to make changes in Washington. It will be getting ready to retain a Republican administration after a nominal flurry of debate. Public opinion polls and other expert guesswork to the contrary notwithstanding, the election is not going to be close.

The American people have never failed to show it when they were in a mood to change federal administrations—and they're not showing it in 1960.

First Soviet Man in Space

Kennedy's Liberal Tag

By JAY G. HAYDEN

Observation of the presidential campaign to date leads this writer to believe that Sen. Kennedy has miscalculated by trying to emulate President Franklin D. Roosevelt's crusade in behalf of the "Forgotten Man."

Roosevelt notably did not assume that posture in his first bid for the presidency. To the contrary he beat President Hoover in 1932 by insisting that the depression had been brought about by Mr. Hoover's excessive spending, and promising a deep cut of expenditures and strict adherence to the gold standard as a U.S. financial base.

Roosevelt began his administration by demanding forthwith reduction in every item of government expenditure he could lay his hands on, including such sacrosanct items as the pay of federal employees and all forms of veterans' pensions.

Within a week he forced adoption by Congress of all of his economy proposals.

BUT THE 100 DAYS Mr. Kennedy reveres, Roosevelt had abolished the gold standard, with effect of reducing the value of the dollar to 59 cents and Congress quickly followed by restoring wages and pensions to the Hoover level and higher.

Roosevelt went on to new highs in government spending in behalf of every group and class: Henry Wallace's farm bounties, Harry Hopkins' guaranty of a weekly pay check to every citizen regardless of whether there was a job for him or not, and a multitude of comparable wrinkles, all productive of votes.

Hence it was that Roosevelt in 1956 won re-election over Alf Landon by the widest margin in all history — 523 to 8 in the Electoral College and 27,751,612 to 16,681,913 in popular vote.

After that Roosevelt was not so good at the polls. In 1938 he suffered a severe setback, evidenced by Republican gains of 80 House and eight Senate seats in Congress and nine state governorships.

Roosevelt held on through the elections in 1940 and 1944 but that due mainly because of the outbreak of World War II.

Returning to Sen. Kennedy, much of his trouble may rise from the Democratic presidential primary campaign, in which his principal opponent was Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, whole-hog New Deal promoter of everything to everybody. More so, if possible, was Sen. Wayne Morse, Kennedy's primary opponent in Oregon and Maryland after Humphrey threw up the sponge.

On account of those two, Kennedy outdid himself in swinging left-wing on every sort of issue, and he continued that course in the Democratic convention, where Sen. Lyndon Johnson was his most formidable opponent by going far left on all platform issues.

All this was in spite of the fact that the recently adjourned Congress, approaching end of its final year, had totally belied the prophecies at the time of its election, in November, 1958, that it would prove the harbinger of another New Deal era.

ASSESSING that election, Sen. Johnson, the present vice-presidential nominee, said "this is the starting of a new era. In all the history of the Senate never has one party won so many seats at a single election as we have won. We have here by our majority (65 to 35) an obligation to lead."

And said Chairman Paul Butler of the Democratic National Committee:

"While it will undoubtedly be impossible for Congress to overcome administration objection to do all that should be done, it should now be possible to enact legislation that the administration has previously defeated and to put through a large portion of the clear and comprehensive program."

The fact, of course, is that in neither the 1959 nor 1960 sessions did this overwhelmingly Democratic Congress put through a single significant measure not subscribed to by President Eisenhower other than a pay raise for government employees and a public works "pork barrel" bill.

As against those two passed over presidential veto, scores of Eisenhower vetoes have been sustained, always with Democratic support.

The climactic event as the after-convention special session, in which the candidatorial duo of Kennedy and Johnson, working in full harmony for the first time in their lives, failed to win enactment of a single item drawn from the Democratic national platform.

The key fact of the campaign to this moment seems to be that the national electorate is no more New Deal-minded than was the just concluded Congress.

Only a Good Show

By DAVID LAWRENCE

'Great Debate' Failed to Inform Electors

As a show and a novelty, the "Great Debate" between Vice President Nixon and Sen. Kennedy came up to expectations. As a substantial help to millions of uninformed voters, it was a failure.

Even many of the voters with a high school or college education who know the meanings of the big words had difficulty with the generality of the answers and the slick phrases that give little understanding of the issues being talked about.

If this is to be the formula for the "Great Debate," the next three shows may attract smaller and smaller audiences. Many voters will be bored and turn off their sets unless the candidates can get down to brass tacks and give the people some basic information to guide them in making up their minds.

As it is, both candidates on Monday night seemed to be after the same thing. They tried to avoid giving offense to anybody. They wanted to help everybody, and to define their objectives and goals. They didn't come to grips with any single issue. They appeared to be saying over and over again that each would try to attain such aim by different means.

If that's the only difference between the candidates or the party platforms, then the voter will have an increasingly difficult time making his choice based on what is said in the television debates.

THERE ARE 75 million Americans who will vote this year. Assuming that they all have television sets and that they all turned them on and gave up their personal engagements for the evening, how many actually understood what was said?

How many of the millions grasped the nuances and fine points on federal aid to education in one plan or another?

How many knew the meaning of the differing votes and parliamentary tactics inside the House Rules Committee in holding up a bill that the Senate had already passed? How many knew when the debate was over whether America is standing still or moving ahead?

How many knew what was really meant by such vague terms as inflation or the rate of economic growth or gross national product? It was over the heads of the audience.

Once or twice during the evening the candidates got down to cases. When Sen. Kennedy, for instance, said he would increase Social Security payments, Vice President Nixon quickly pointed out that this would mean higher payments for Social Security taxes. This touches the pocketbook of the voter and is readily understood.

As for the subject of experience, many in the audience couldn't get from what was said a clear idea of either candidate's ability to be president.

Puzzled Taxpayer

Some things puzzle me, like the school administration hiring out-of-town women to work in the school cafeteria and out-of-town police to do special duty at the West Branch football games at our own Reilly Stadium.

When the Board of Education needs money, they send home hard-learned letters to us home owners and taxpayers.

Our local Auxiliary police are fine fellows and they work for nothing, but when a paying job like the West Branch games comes along, the board permits them to bring in police from out of the county. Let's give recognition where recognition is due.

Urges Prayer for U.N.

Because of the seriousness of the current United Nations sessions in New York City, it behoove all of us to pray unceasingly for the world organization and for its dedicated leaders.

I encourage all Christians to pray for the U.N. These are perilous times.

Cites Pottery Industry's Plight

The newspapers have recently carried reports of the demands the employees in the dinnerware industry will make of management in a negotiating session soon to start in New York City.

For this reason the general public and the employees should be interested in knowing the status of this industry which in its declining state is still of major economic importance to pottery communities.

As a result of the constant and insistent demands of the union and the foreign trade policies of the United States government, the semi-vitreous dinnerware industry has become marginal. No longer do these manufacturers have substantial regular customers supplying repeat business which any industry needs to remain sound.

Instead, they get orders now only when the customer cannot wait.

Sen. Kennedy said he has been in Congress as long as Mr. Nixon has.

The vice president said he has attended Cabinet meetings and National Security Council sessions and that he has participated in all the important meetings at the White House before major decisions were made in the last 7½ years.

But what does all this add up to? Sen. Kennedy wisely remarked that perhaps an outline of experience is helpful, but it really couldn't tell the voter what kind of president a candidate would make.

ALL IN ALL, what did the television stunt do that was better than what is normally done in presidential campaigns?

The newspapers throughout the land have always printed thousands of snapshots of the candidates.

Millions of posters have always displayed big pictures of the nominees on billboards.

The people have always flocked to mass meetings to see and hear the candidates and usually this has confirmed a previous prejudice or added to a preconceived measure of esteem.

The radio networks have carried the speeches rather extensively ever since the 1924 campaign. Television has shown both party candidates in action ever since the 1944 campaign.

As for particular issues, the "Great Debate" failed to deal comprehensively with any of them. A speech given over entirely to the farm problem would be listened to with intense interest for an hour by a farm audience.

An address in simple terms devoted wholly to the rise or fall in the cost of living or the best way to promote self-reliance rather than government control of everybody's life would, if thoroughly covered in an hour-long speech, give the listener far more of an idea of the differences between the two presidential nominees than was possible to derive from Monday night's show.

Any of the half-hour panel shows that permit newsmen a chance to interrogate and cross-examine a single speaker are far more interesting and aid the individual voter more than the catch-as-catch-can affair of Monday night.

THE QUESTIONS asked were too far afield and didn't explain basic principles or fundamental differences. The interrogatories were of the provocative type, which the two candidates, of course, skillfully parried. It was good snowmanship but not very informative.

After all, there are more than 100 million eligible voters. Of these, 75 million are expected to vote this autumn.

What's the common denominator of 75 million men and women?

Certainly it is not an electorate as well informed as are the commentators or the interviewers or the candidates.

The participants in Monday night's television spectacular missed a big opportunity to help the people to understand the issues.

for shipments from foreign producers or can't get what they want from nonunion American producers, both groups underselling the union producers because of lower wage levels and unrestricted working conditions.

For eight years the industry has been in a retreating position with existence becoming constantly more difficult. In the past 13 years average hourly earnings have increased 62 per cent while the cost of living has increased 30 per cent so that employees have received substantially more than the cost of living increases. During this same period 14 major producers have either gone bankrupt or liquidated primarily because they could not compete with foreign made and nonunion American-made products.

It has therefore become necessary for the nine remaining semi-vitreous dinnerware producers members of the United States Pottery Association to ask the cooperation of their employees in the survival of this remaining fragment of the industry by accepting a 6 cent per hour reduction in existing wage rates and holding the line on all other issues. Even then survival will be difficult.

When will there be an easing in this seriously curtailing situation? When the United States government realizes that in its dealings with other nations it cannot bargain away the jobs of American workmen without serious economic repercussions.

W. A. Belz, secretary-treasurer, United States Pottery Association.

Kasavubu Recognizes Mobutu Council as Congo Government

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — President Joseph Kasavubu today formally recognized Col. Joseph Mobutu's council of government commissioners as the provincial government of the Congo.

Kasavubu officially installed the group of 27 college-graduate technicians set up by Mobutu, the army chief of staff, after his bloodless coup d'etat two weeks ago against the infant African republic's warring politicians.

Kasavubu's action—if it sticks—reduces the declared governments of the Congo from three to two.

Joseph Ileo, named premier by Kasavubu Sept. 5 to replace Patrice Lumumba, told newsmen that he now recognizes Mobutu's council as a temporary government.

The holdout, Lumumba, remained a virtual prisoner in the premier's official residence, protected by Ghanaian soldiers of the U. N. force.

Kasavubu also announced that U. N. soldiers from Ghana and Guinea must leave Congo territory by Oct. 5 at the latest, echoing a demand made earlier by Mobutu. There was no immediate reaction from the U. N. Command, which has taken the stand that the composition of the U. N. force cannot be dictated by Congo officials.

Mobutu's commissioners made public a photographic copy of a letter from Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah to Lumumba advising him to work with his political enemies—including Kasavubu—and the United Nations to consolidate his power and then to get rid of them. Nkrumah addressed Lumumba as "My Dear Patrice."

Mobutu's government also made public copies of letters they said the deposed premier wrote to the Soviet Union asking for arms, planes and other material aid; and to Red China asking for "volunteers."

In still another development, Kasavubu announced a conference of Congo political leaders and personalities will be held within the next few days, probably in Leopoldville. Premier Moise Tshombe of secessionist Katanga province has been invited.

Mrs. Fred H. Johnson Jr.

Fred Johnson, Jr., Bride On Honeymoon to Europe

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Europe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Johnson Jr. will reside in Summitville.

The bridegroom, a son of Mrs. F. H. Johnson Sr. of Summitville and the late Mr. Johnson, and Elizabeth L. Johnston of Canton, pledged their marriage vows Sunday at 4:30 p.m. in Trinity Lutheran Church.

Tall candle holders, enhanced by garlands of southern smilax, lined the aisle leading to the church sanctuary. Large urns filled with green fuji chrysanthemums and butterscotch mums marked the entrance. Flanking the altar were tiered arrangements of green fuji pums, garnet red mums, gold glided eucalyptus and huckleberry. Officiating clergyman for the double ring ceremony was Rev. W. H. Hackenberg. Claren Sommer was organist. Ethel Drehman of Philadelphia, Pa., a sister of the bridegroom, sang "Calm as the Night," "I Love You" and "O Perfect Love." Dr. Robert Johnson of Green Bay, Wis., gave his sister in marriage.

The bridal gown of white delicate satin was trimmed with crystal beads. It was designed with a fitted bodice with square neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The bouffant skirt extended to a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was held by beaded orange blossom sprays. The bride carried a sheath of wheat crescent with a cascade arrangement of white princess orchids and purple lipped white cattail orchids, and she wore a gold charm bracelet, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Lloyd Coombes of Decatur, Ill., was her sister's matron of honor. Mrs. Peter Johnson of Highland Ave., a sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Jane Baedel of Canton were the bridesmaids.

Leetonia Dinner Is Attended By 100 Kiwanians and Guests

LEETONIA — More than 100 attended the dinner sponsored by the Leetonia-Washingtonville Kiwanis Club Tuesday evening when they observed Ladies and Teachers Night.

Dr. Howard W. Jones, president of Youngstown University, spoke on "Education," spiritual, economic and intellectual, with emphasis on the average student. Edward Greenmyer, club president, introduced the speaker.

Miss DeErla Smith sang several songs, accompanied by Mrs. Merle Davis.

The ladies of the Unity Class of the Methodist Church served the dinner.

will and sweetness on the stand but the jury didn't believe him of they wouldn't have returned this verdict against him. The only witness they put on said Blair visited the Jungle Inn more times than he said he did.

Anderson recalled the Jungle Inn operated about 1949. "Mr. Farah admitted he had operated gambling places during that time," the prosecutor added.

Miss Arlene Steuer of Cleveland, Farah counsel, said the defense was prevented at the trial from putting on other witnesses for testimony about business relations and friendship between Farah and Blair.

"The court of appeals said error was committed in excluding witnesses," she told the high court. "We should have had the right to test the credibility of the witness."

Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt noted that there was "great conflict" in trial testimony.

Weygandt asked who struck the first blow. "We know who landed the first blow," Miss Steuer replied. "Farah broke Blair's nose."

She added that police examination of a snub-nose automatic registered to Farah showed no traces of blood or hair that could have come from Blair. The attorney asserted Blair suffered a head wound from a bump on a car after he was knocked down.

"We don't say that was the gun," Anderson stated. "They produced it from under the bed in Mike's room." He added that it could very easily have made the head wound.

The altercation took place outside Farah's home June 7, 1959. Farah claimed it was over a $500 loan made to Blair but Blair denied any loan and termed the argument political.

"Blair said they were going to discuss the firing of a girl from the Board of Elections and Farah wanted her put back on," Anderson related.

Christian Service met Tuesday evening in the Methodist Church with Mrs. George Weikart, president in charge.

Two future events were discussed, World Wide Community Day, Nov. 4, and World Day of Prayer to be held in February.

Mrs. Robert Ferguson had charge of devotions and Mrs. William Burgess gave an interesting talk on her experiences during the war years in England.

The Society's 20th anniversary will be observed at the next meeting Oct. 25.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Merle Davis and Mr. Willard Davis.

THE W.S.C.S. will sponsor the first Family Night coverdish dinner of the fall season Sunday evening at 6 in the social room of the Methodist Church.

The Rebekah Lodge will sponsor a benefit card party Saturday evening at 8:30.

Woman Driver Unhurt as Truck 'Runs Over' Auto

A 38-year-old Salem area woman narrowly escaped serious injury this morning when her small foreign automobile was literally "run over" by a truck.

Police reported Mrs. Gwendolyn F. Weaver, of RD 1, Salem, pulled up on the right side of a truck-trailer waiting at the traffic light at W. State St. and Howard E. Shaw, 58, of Akron.

When the light changed, both Shaw and Mrs. Weaver started to turn south onto Howard Ave. The truck's trailer went over the hood of the small car and then started over the top. At this point the driver apparently realized what was happening and hit the brake.

Mrs. Weaver was not injured but the left front end of her car, the left side and the top were damaged considerably. She said she missed the truck driver's turn signal.

She forfeited a $15 bond in Mayor Dean Cranmer's traffic court on a charge of reckless operation. Time of the accident was 7:48 a.m.

Rutherford was sentenced to die Nov. 4 for the slaying of Lawrence Price, 30, in Bridgeport, Aug. 13, 1957. He had been granted a 120-day stay by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

The Dream That Didn't Come True

Freedom Has Brought Only Misery to Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Republic of Congo at this stage is the dream that didn't come true.

Three months of independence have brought 14 million Congolese only bloodshed, misery and aching frustration.

Black men sit in the fine mansions of the old white rulers but they do not rule. Rifles and machineguns in the hands of Congolese soldiers and United Nations troops are the scepters of power and order.

The republic, born so solemnly

Congolese. There are 250,000 refugees in the Bakwanga region of Kasai province alone.

The Soviets with their planes and trucks helped to move the Congolese army to remote parts of the country. Incredible confusion was created.

Food Supplies Short

With both President Joseph Kasavubu and Lumumba claiming ultimate power, there is no government. Normal channels of commerce have been disrupted. Food staples have run short in rural areas. The United Nations is doing its best with its planes and a creaking internal transportation system.

Tons and tons of dried skim milk were contributed by the United States. But Congolese children do not like the taste. The United Nations invented a Soviet-American cocktail, 40 parts American milk to 12 parts Soviet sugar.

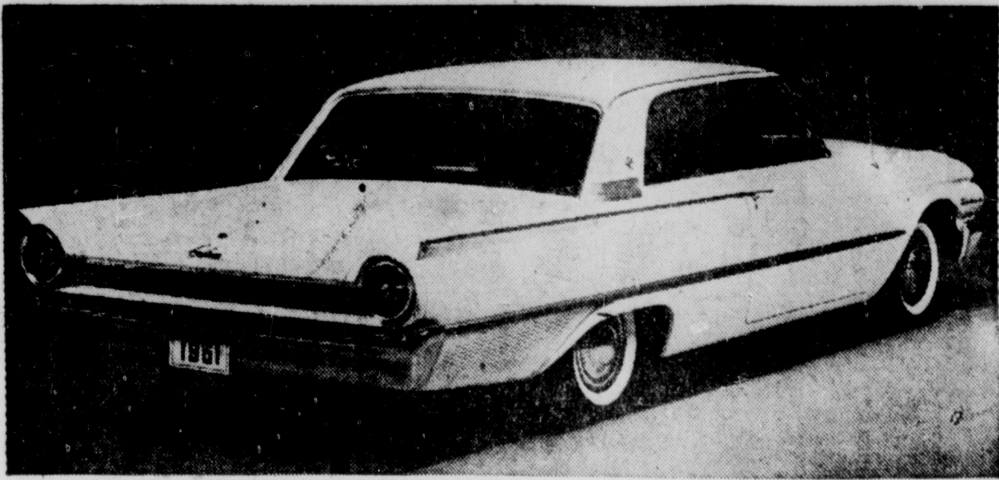

The prices of food and other consumer goods creep up. The Congolese franc has lost a fifth its value.

The nation's income from exports has plummeted. To get the economy moving, credit is needed, but there is no credit for a country which cannot pay its bills.

There are 400 hospitals operating in the Congo today but only 50 have doctors. Many secondary schools will remain closed if foreign teachers do not return.

Factories, plantations, stores, and service installations are still because white men question the Congo's future after the convulsion of the past three months.

Those who suffer most from the bitter and violent struggle of the politicians are the millions of patient Congolese who thought freedom and "the republic" would bring a shiny future for their barefoot children. Some hope the United Nations can still make the dream come true.

FORD FOR '61 — The Ford Galaxie Club Victoria, a new model in the Ford line that was introduced to the public today, features crisp, new styling that has been honored by an international fashion authority in Rome for its "functional expression of classic beauty." The new Fords are nearly four inches shorter and two inches narrower for greater maneuverability, and introduce 30,000-mile lubrication. Other engineering features include self-adjusting brakes, double-wrapped aluminized muffler, and a 4,000-mile oil change interval. An optional 390-cubic-inch high performance engine also is available.

East Liverpool Man Seeks $25,000 Damages

LISBON—A suit for $25,000 for personal injuries, expenses and loss of work stemming from an auto accident was filed in Common Pleas Court Wednesday by Anderson Abbott of East Liverpool.

Fred A. Jones of East Liverpool and Nick Radella, Smiths Ferry, Pa., were named defendants.

Abbott claims that on March 22 he was a passenger in a car driven by Fred Jones which was struck by a truck driven by Radella.

Ohio Boating Mishaps Fatal to 5 This Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Six persons have died in boating accidents in Ohio during the first nine months of the year—five by drowning and one in a skiing mishap, the Ohio Division of Watercraft reports.

Out of a total of 114 water accidents, 89 resulted in personal injuries or damage of at least $100. The remaining 25 were minor accidents.

"Ninety percent of the accidents, where there was injury or damage were the result of carelessness," said C. B. Taylor, assistant division administrator.

Taylor said that the five drowning victims had fallen from boats. The skier was a teen-age girl being towed late one night near Cleveland. Another boat hit the tow line and pulled the skier against the craft, killing her.

Some 125,000 boats and 35,000 motors have been registered in Ohio for the first time. The 1959 Legislature, after creating the Division of Watercraft, passed a law requiring state registration of all boats and motors.

LOOK WHAT DODGE HAS DONE FOR COMPACTS

The name, Lancer: one hardtop; one 2-door sedan; two 4-door sedans; two wagons. What kind of cars are they? This kind: two feet shorter; many pounds leaner; a couple of hundred dollars less in cost than usual automobiles. Lancer welcomes a family of six lavishly. Has plenty of trunk. Its fully-unitized body is very quiet, very tough. Lancer is also mannerly. It corners decisively, takes a well scarred road with aplomb. Parks obediently. More reasons to buy? Read on. The interiors are rich, but simple: Shed soil, wear well, feel good. The engine is highly spirited, but extremely light on regular gasoline. One more thing, Lancer is built by Dodge. Our name is on it. This means Lancer will stay nice and shiny. How so? The body is rustproofed by an exclusive Chrysler Corporation process. Enough talk. Meet Lancer at your Dodge Dealer. Now.

Columbiana Aims For One-Day Chest Drive

COLUMBIANA — Final details are being worked out for the annual Columbiana Community Fund campaign which will be conducted Monday when several organizations will join in a concerted effort to reach the $7,100 goal. The target is the same as that set up last year when the campaign fell short by about $2,000.

Fund leaders hope to wind up the campaign in one day, with business and professional offices to be contacted during the day and a house-to-house canvass made that night by members of various local service groups who annually assist in the solicitations.

The general chairmanship for the campaign is held by Mrs. John Elder, representing the Business & Professional Women's Club. Other directors of the fund, in addition to Mrs. Elder, are: Tracy C. Powell, treasurer, Rev. William S. Longworth, Wilbur Garrod, Wayne Paulson, Delbert W. Bailey, Wilder Foertch, and William Kimpel. Robert Leonard serves as secretary of the fund.

Agencies sharing in the chest are the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salem City Hospital, Salem Central Clinic, Salvation Army and local relief.

MRS. PAULINE PINE, president of the Columbiana Democratic Women's Club, has named the following committees for the club year:

Program chairman, Mrs. Mary Fisher; ways and means, Mrs. Betty Gosney, chairman, Mrs. Evelyn Stacey and Mrs. Dorothy Stacey; telephone, Mrs. Mildred Hall, chairman, Mrs. Manila Dugan, Mrs. Edna Calvin, Mrs. Sylvia Urschler and Mrs. Margaret Wise; publicity, Mrs. Kay Blackburn.

Miss Judith Marshall of RD 1, Columbiana, has enrolled for training at the Fairview Park Hospital School of Nursing in Cleveland. First-year studies will be on campus at Baldwin-Wallace College. Next summer, she will move to the school of nursing building beside the hospital for two years of study and practice.

Newcomer Wins R.I. Election

Dems Nominate Pell For Senate Seat

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Socialite-businessman Claiborne de Borda Pell of Newport bowed into Rhode Island politics with a bang Wednesday night, trouncing two seasoned campaigners to win the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senate.

In his first bid for elective office, Pell, 41, was nominated to succeed Sen. Theodore Francis Green, 92, who is not seeking re-election.

He upset two former governors driving for political comebacks. Pell polled 83,184 votes to 45,196 for four-time Gov. Dennis J. Roberts, who had the backing of the Democratic State Committee. J. Howard McGrath, who served as governor, U.S. senator, U.S. attorney general and Democratic national chairman, was far behind. McGrath got only 7,525 votes, despite a television-radio address by former President Harry S. Truman in his behalf.

Lt. Gov. John A. Notte Jr. defeated former Lt. Gov. Armand H. Cote for the Democratic nomination for governor.

In the 1st District State Rep. Fernand J. St. Germain easily outdistanced four other candidates for the nomination to succeed U.S. Rep. Aime J. Forand, sponsor of a controversial Democratic plan for medical care for the aged, who did not seek re-election.

U.S. Rep. John E. Fogarty was unopposed for Democratic renomination in the 2nd District.

A record 135,000 Democrats turned out for the rainy-day balloting. That vote was more than 40,000 over the previous high of two years ago.

Christopher Del Sesto, first GOP Governor in nearly 20 years, is seeking re-election.

Raoul Archambault Jr., former assistant director of the U. S. budget, is the Republican candidate for the Senate; and Theophile Martin is GOP nominee for the 1st District seat. The Republican held their primary Sept. 19.

Mistrial Declared In Fratantonio Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—A new trial probably will be held in late November for Mrs. Lillian Fratantonio, mother of Cleveland's "sleeping beauty" daughters. She is accused of putting them into coma by feeding them drugs.

Judge Albert A. Woldman, presiding jurist in juvenile court, ordered a mistrial in the current child-neglect case Wednesday. He dismissed the jury which had listened to testimony all last week.

The trial did not resume Monday because Judge Margaret J. Spellacy was sent to a hospital over the weekend with a pleurisy condition. She is expected to be away from the bench a month.

Judge Woldman said it would be unwise and unfair to continue the trial indefinitely. He granted the mistrial on a defense motion, overruling a prosecution request that a new judge be appointed to hear the case.

At the urging of Thomas L. Osborne, assistant county prosecutor, Judge Woldman then postponed the trial for at least six weeks.

Mrs. Fratantonio, 29-year-old mother of five children, said she was pleased with the mistrial ruling. She declared she would make an effort to get back her children, Venita, 5, and Bernadette, 3, both now in the temporary care of a Catholic charities home.

Mrs. Fratantonio's attorneys said they would ask for a hearing soon on custody of the girls, but observers doubted such a hearing would be granted while the neglect trial's outcome was pending.

TURN DOWN INVITATIONS
Wittenberg University has announced that Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, and his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, have turned down invitations to speak at the school. Both said tight schedules prevented their appearance. The Democratic nominee, Sen. John F. Kennedy, has accepted an invitation to speak at the university on Oct. 17.

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

BOSTON—Sheriffs and police chiefs in communities where General Electric produces anything from outspace rafts to refrigerators have been receiving visitors intent on philosophical discussions. For months now GE executives have been talking with the authorities about law enforcement for all, even during a strike.

In some communities, they have said to the sheriffs that there has been a double standard resulting in considerable rocking and rolling outside their plant gates.

For some time now the outspoken GE policy makers have been expecting a national strike in October. For some time they have planned to operate their installations in the face of picketing by Jim Carey's International Union of Electrical Workers.

THIS IS EVIDENT from a letter dispatched by the general manager of five departments in three GE installations in the nearby Lynn area.

It is a frank communication. It states bluntly GE believes it is the right of all workers to cross picket lines peacefully.

Similar mailings were sent to tens of thousands of workers in 57 other GE factories across the country.

"In the event that we become involved in a strike," the message says, "we plan to keep the plant open for all who have work to do."

"I think you should know that you have the right to come to work if there should be a strike even though a union picket line is set up outside the plant gates."

"Pickets have the right to ask you not to go to work, but they do not have any right to prevent you by force and violence from entering your place of work."

This was written, but not mailed, before the strike vote was set by the union for Sept. 25, a Sunday. The company objected to the use of the Sabbath saying that only disciplined members would ballot. Then GE offered its facilities for polling right in the plant.

THE COMPANY said no one would be docked for time spent casting a ballot for or against the strike.

Furthermore, the firm called for should decide to file a suit for damages against the union." The letter also warns that the company will discipline any employee who indulges in unlawful conduct on the picket line. The letter says the manager wants no violence or exposure to bodily harm in attempting to cross the picket line. This is a historic document.

It will be seen as a challenge: not only by Jim Carey, but by all his colleagues—and right at the height of the presidential campaign.

"Whether you are an individual wish to strike is a matter for your own individual choice. That is the law," continued the letter.

"As far as picketing is concerned the law also makes it clear that a union... has the right to picket the strike by placing pickets at plant entrances. These pickets have no legal right to hinder anyone who is trying to enter or leave the plant. You, therefore, have every right to cross the picket line to go to work."

"In fact, in a very real sense, if you do not cross a peaceful picket line, you have joined the strike."

"This raises the question of what you can do in the event that you come to work some morning only to find your entrance blocked by union pickets. The decision... is up to you but I won't make these broad suggestions you might wish to take."

Then the general manager outlined a six-point proposal. The letter says try other plant gates if the police can't clear "your" usual one.

Report to the nearest police officer, says the firm, "if pickets should bar your entrance through the use of force."

Employees are then urged to make a list of people, witnesses and police to whom the non-striker has appealed.

SIGNIFICANT is the plant manager's advice to make a report in writing. The letter says "You may wish to keep a copy... in case you

Salem Quakers to Face Toughest Foe of Season Friday

Hot Defense Battle Expected With Farrell High Night Riders

Locals Have Failed to Score In Last 7 Games With Pennsylvania Schools

By DICK BRAUTIGAM Last year at just about this time, the Salem High football squad, unbeaten, untied and unscored upon in three games, went to Ambridge, Pa., and returned home after a sad showing on the short end of a 14-0 score.

This Friday night at Reilly Stadium another Pennsylvania team gets the same opportunity to dirty up a clean slate compiled in three games by the high flying Quakers of Coach Blaine Morton.

The Night Riders were hit hard by graduation last year. End Willie Alford is the only returning regular who played both offense and defense last year. Still, there's not much doubt but what Farrell is a better team than any of the three the Quakers have subdued thus far this year.

The Night Riders were impressive in their first two games when they dumped Erie Academy 28-0. In a breather opener and then edged Alliquippa, 7-6, in a Midwestern Conference game.

Then last week, Butler snapped Farrell's winning streak by turning back the Night Riders, 6-0. The only score in that bruising battle came in the first quarter when Butler recovered a fumble on the Farrell 10 yard line and pushed the pigskin over the goal in three stabs.

COACH ANTHONY PAULEKAS was a very disappointed man after that game. "We looked lousy," was his appraisal of his team's performance. "We're green and have no speed whatsoever."

Compared to last year's Farrell powerhouse, the current squad probably does look slow to the coach. Still, it was good enough to defeat a big, rugged Alliquippa ball club which many western Pennsylvania writers contend is better than the Butler eleven that stopped the Night Riders' winning streak.

Farrell has had considerable success this season in blocking punts. Frequently the Night Riders will sacrifice the setting up of a punt return, to concentrate on keeping the kicker from getting the ball away.

This could bring about quite a duel in the Salem game as the Quaker punter, Rick Sulea, is not one to waste time in putting the leather to the ball once he gets the snap from center.

As usual, the Quakers will be at a decided weight disadvantage both in the line and the backfield.

The mainstay in the Farrell line is 230 - pound tackle Pat Sanders who saw considerable action on defense and won a varsity letter last year. John Kahl, 180, fullback, also won a letter mainly for his work on defense last year. Kahl and Alford are co-captains.

THE ONE QUESTIONMARK in the Farrell backfield for Friday is halfback Ron Clarke who has a banged up leg. Coach Paulekas says Clarke will probably be ready to play against Salem but if he isn't, Nick DeVito, 150, senior, will take his place.

Coach Morton says he plans to stick with the same starting line-up that has come through in the three previous games. Halfback Dave Edling, who looked so good against Ravenna, is expected to see more action against Farrell.

On defense, where the Quakers have looked particularly impressive, Coach Morton says he will go with Duane McClaskey and Don Davidson at ends, Jim Schuster and Butch Crawford at tackles, and Fred Harshman at middle guard.

Ron Janovec and either Bob Elster or Fred Kaiser will be the linebackers, Chuck Hertel and Tony Chitea will handle the corners and Gary Devan and John DeFavero will be stationed at the safety spots.

THE FARRELL JUNIOR high coach scouted Salem in its last two games. "He was impressed by the Salem backfield," Coach Paulekas commented. "If you let them get set, you're in trouble," is the Farrell scouting report on the Quakers.

Salem has never had much success against Pennsylvania football teams. The Quakers have played teams from the Keystone state only 12 times since 1908, winning two, losing nine and tying one. Salem's 14-0 loss to Ambridge last season marked the seventh consecutive game that the Quakers had been shut out by a Pennsylvania foe.

The Quakers have a pretty fair shutout record of their own that they would like to keep intact Friday night. Salem hasn't been scored on in the last five games. The locals also have an eight-game winning streak going.

The Salem scouts who have watched Farrell play are not optimistic about the Quakers' chances Friday night. But, of course, the scouts who saw Farrell play Butler didn't see the Quakers rip up Ravenna.

Kickoff time Friday at Reilly Stadium is 8 p.m.

Yanks' Howard May Have Broken Finger

By The Associated Press The Big Guy is gone. After 19 seasons with the Boston Red Sox—as the kid who set the American League rookie record with 31 home runs in 1939, as the Splendid Splinter who won the first of six bat titles with a .406 average in 1941, as the slugger who has hit more home runs than any other except Babe Ruth and Jimmy Foxx—Ted Williams decided "there's nothing more I can do," and called it quits Wednesday.

Before his decision was announced Williams hit his 521st home run, a 450-foot shot over the center field bullpen at Boston's Fenway Park in his final at bat as the Red Sox beat Baltimore 5-4.

It was Williams' 29th home run of the year and his only hit in three trips, giving him a .316 average for 113 games this season, and a .344 lifetime mark.

The possible loss of Elston Howard worried the New York Yankees. X-rays were scheduled today to determine whether Howard suffered a broken finger—which would put him on the sidelines for next week's World Series—when a foul ball nipped his throwing hand Wednesday night.

The ball, off the bat of Zorro Versalles, dislocated the ring finger on Howard's right hand in a first-inning mishap as the Yankees whipped Washington 6-3 and tied the AL home run record while running up their 12th straight success.

Kansas City made it three straight over Cleveland, winning 4-0 behind Ned Garver's three-hit pitching in the only other AL game scheduled.

The Yankees tied the home run mark of 190 they set in 1956 by hitting three off Washington southpaw Chuck Stobbs (12-7). Mickey Mantle blasted a pair, taking over the league lead from teammate Roger Maris with 40. Clete Boyer hit his 14th.

Whitey Ford, the little lefty who may be Manager Casey Stengel's opening day pitcher in the World Series at Pittsburgh next Wednesday, won his 12th in a five-inning tune up. Ford, who has lost nine, gave up five hits and one earned run, Bob Allison's 15th homer. He didn't walk a man, struck out three.

Jim Coates, back with the Yanks after treatment for a kidney ailment, and Luis Arroyo mopped up. Each allowed just one hit as the Yanks wrapped up the longest winning streak in the AL since they won 13 in 1954.

Reliever Mike Fornieles (10-5) was the winner for Boston in his 70th appearance of the year, breaking the AL record of 69 set by Ellis Kinder of the Red Sox in 1953. Jack Fisher (12-11), who gave up Williams' homer, was the loser when Boston broke a 4-4 tie on Billy Klaus' error in the ninth.

Baltimore 020 011 000-4 9 1 Boston 200 000 012-5 6 1 Barber, Fisher (1) and Triandos; Muffett, Fornieles (8) and Pagliaroni. W—Fornieles (10-5). L—Fisher (12-11).

Home runs—Baltimore, Triandos (12). Boston, Williams (29).

New York 201 030 000-6 11 1 Washington 011 000 001-3 7 2 Ford, Coates (6), Arroyo (8) and Howard, Berra (1), Blanchard (6); Stobbs, Clevenger (6), Woodeshick (9) and Battey. W—Ford (12-9). L—Stobbs (12-7).

Home runs—New York, Mantle 2 (40), Boyer (14). Washington, Allison (15).

Leslie Combs II sold nine head during the annual Yearling sales at Keeneland this year for $347,000, an average of $38,555 per horse.

Williams slams a dramatic final to his Red Sox career in Fenway Park in Boston Wednesday with a 450-foot homer in eighth inning against Baltimore. It was the 521st homer of Ted's career, 13 behind second place Jimmy Foxx. Red Sox have no more home games.

San Francisco Says No Was Ray Norton a Pro Before Olympic Games?

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Ray Norton and the San Francisco 49ers insist the rookie halfback was pure amateur when he competed in the 1960 Rome Olympics.

The 6 foot 2 speedburning flop of the U.S. team said Wednesday he most truthfully signed an affidavit before leaving for Italy saying that he had not agreed either orally or in writing to play for the National Football League team.

Forty-niner officials said they took pains to keep Norton an amateur. The issue arose after Joe Williams wrote in the New York World-Telegram and Sun that information about the affidavit plus the fact the 49ers ballyhooed Norton in promotional material "may shed some light on Ray Norton's wretched performance in the recent Olympics."

The 49ers drafted Norton in November 1959. Norton declared he was sincere when he told newsmen on his return from Rome that he intended to pass up pro football to return to San Jose State.

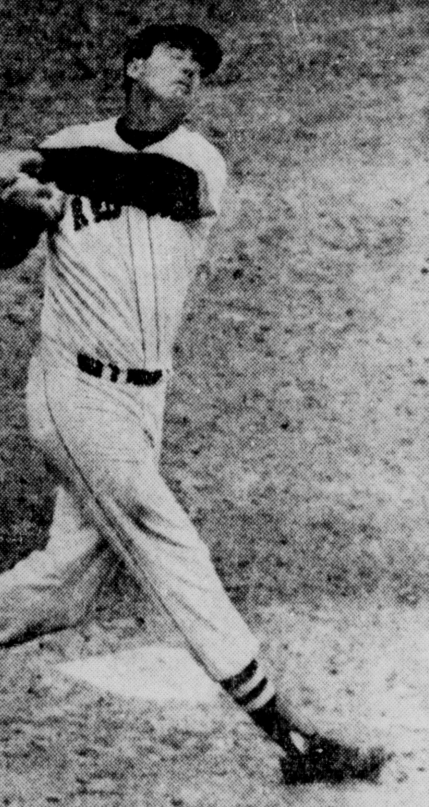

However, on Sept. 16 when he got to his front door in Oakland, 49ers general manager Lou Spadia was waiting, and after several hours conversation a contract was signed.

Boardman Edges Fairfield Runners The newly organized Fairfield-Waterford cross-country team turned in a creditable performance in its first meet Wednesday despite a 24-31 loss to Boardman.

Sophomore Eldon Bott of Fairfield-Waterford finished first in the good time of 11:30. Freshman Ronnie Taylor of the Rebels came in fifth. Coach Bing Newton's Fairfield-Waterford team is made up entirely of freshmen and sophomores.

Their next meet will be Tuesday at East Palestine against the Bulldogs.

Ted Williams Bows Out With 450-foot Homer for Red Sox

Williams slams a dramatic final to his Red Sox career in Fenway Park in Boston Wednesday with a 450-foot homer in eighth inning against Baltimore. It was the 521st homer of Ted's career, 13 behind second place Jimmy Foxx. Red Sox have no more home games.

U.S. Amateurs Take Golf Lead

32 Countries Battle For Eisenhower Cup

ARDMORE, Pa. (AP)—America's World Amateur Golf team held a nine stroke lead over the field today in the battle for the Eisenhower Cup.

The team of Billy Hyndman, III, Bob Gardner, Deane Beman and Jack Nicklaus turned the tough Merion Golf Club course Wednesday in the rain with a 208 total score.

Tied for second as the field of 126 from 32 countries started, the second round were a Mexican team and four shotmakers from New Zealand with a team total of 217. Great Britain-Ireland has 218, Australia 219 and South Africa 220.

All four Americans scored well on the par 36-34, 6,694 yard layout. Under the unique scoring system of the competition, the low three scores daily of each foursome compose the team total.

The star of the first day's play, Jack Nicklaus, 26, administration major from Ohio State, fired an amateur course record 34-32-66.

Hyndman, Beman, national amateur champion of a week, and Gardner, each scored one over par 71s.

Father, Son Win Lisbon Golf Club Honors For Season

LISBON — The Lisbon Golf League has closed its season, with a father and son duo, Gene and Ed Brooks, being awarded the championship trophy.

Runners-up trophies went to Vincent Judge and Bill Stanley. In the handicap division, winners were Denny Reese and Bob MacAleese.

Winners in the closing field day event were Ed Brooks, Denny Reese, Charles Senanefes, Walter Jones and Duane Bruy.

Officers elected for the league's upcoming fifth year are: President, Duane Bruy; vice president, Ed James; secretary, treasurer, Jerry Evans, and Don Lepley, chairman of the rules committee.

Perry Knocked Around Again

Garver Blanks Indians, 4-0 on Three Hits

KANSAS CITY (AP) Jim Garver, allowed only three Cleveland hits—all in the first four innings and all rubbed out by double plays.

The defeat by the A's, who won only seven of 22 games with Cleveland this year, cost the Indians a chance to assure themselves at least a tie for fourth place. Washington, with two games left, is 1 1/2 games behind Cleveland in fifth.

Perry, whose 17th victory was against Kansas City in Cleveland two weeks ago, was the victim of rookie outfielder Leo Posada's first major league home run. It put the home club ahead 1-0 in the fourth inning and Perry yielded another run in the seventh on Dick Williams' double and two fly balls that sent him around.

A single by Posada and two walks loaded the bases against reliever John Klippstein in the eighth inning, and Kansas City scored two more on another walk and Andy Carey's single.

Idle today, the Indians play their final road game in Chicago Friday night, Saturday and Sunday.

Ritchey, Whitcomb, Agan Take Firsts In Golf Tournament

Bruce Whitcomb, Bob Agan and Rollan Ritchey captured first place in their respective flights of the Gordon Scott Golf Tournament which has just been concluded at the Robbyn's Knoll Course.

Each of the winners was presented a trophy by the Gordon Scott Sporting Goods Store of Salem, sponsors of the tournament.

Approximately 50 contestants started out in the tourney which opened five weeks ago at Robbyn's Knoll under the direction of Gene Smythe.

Browns Wonder If Baker Is Answer to Punting Problems

CLEVELAND (AP) — Sam Baker, whom the Cleveland Browns acquired from Washington in a trade last winter, still has to prove he is the answer to the club's need for topnotch punting.

That's something the Browns haven't had for three seasons since Horace Gillom of Massillon used to boom them at the Stadium.

In Sunday's opener Baker had punts of 43 and 23 yards, and his seven kickoffs never got the ball to the goal line.

So Wednesday the 29-year-old Baker, suffering from a heavy

Hot Battle for Batting Title In National Loop Continues

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's Dick Groat .3250, Norm Larker .3248 and Willie Mays .3203 with four games left in the race for the National League batting crown.
Groat, the Pittsburgh shortstop who hasn't been at bat since Sept. 6 because of a broken wrist, expects to return in a tune up for the World Series as the pennant-winning Pirates play a three-game finale against Milwaukee this weekend. The Bucs were idle Wednesday.
Larker was 1-for-3 as Los Angeles defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 4-2 Wednesday night. The Dodger first baseman doubled and scored their first run, then

BOWLING

The Saxon Classic League bowlers were rough on the pins Wednesday night.
Purity Dairy led all teams in scoring with a 2881 series. They had games of 966-873-1042. That 1042 was high single for the evening. These scores placed Purity on top in both the singles and series categories.
Kuenzli's Market had second high series, bowling a hefty 2849 actual.
Individually, Dick Hahn of Corso's Drive-In had 617 for high series. Hahn's games were 201-211-215. John Del Favero of Purity Dairy was second with a respectable 601 series and games of 219-211-171.
Other high scores were turned in by John Balta, 588-230; Den Brudery, 587-204-202; Chuck Malloy, 585-203; Bill Pauline, 584-203-202; Bill Tullis, 584-267; Dale Klingensmith, 581-225-216; and Ray Patterson, 580-211. Tullis' 267 single game is a league high for the season.
High scoring honors in the E. W. Bliss Nite League were taken by Dick Keeler who had high single game of 212 and series of 556. Other high scores were J. Grindie, 542-187; Bill Bennett, 531-197; and C. Krebs, 525-206.
High team three game set was whipped up by the Panthers who posted 2415 actual and 2712 gross. The Bearcats had high actual single game, 853, and the Alley Cats had high gross single, 937.
In the Bliss Day Turn League, John McCoy blasted the pins for a 637 series. His slate showed 222-ard's single. His sacrifice fly scored winning pitcher Johnny Podres (14-12) in the fifth inning and beat Bob Miller (4-3).

The 21-year-old centerfielder singled and homered to drive in all his team's runs Wednesday night in a 4-1 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs in the first game of the best-of-seven series.
Right-hander Don Nottebart started for Louisville, the American Association champions. He allowed the International League champion Leafs only three hits before he ran into trouble in the ninth inning. The first two men to face him singled. Southpaw Ken MacKenzie put out the fire.
Right-hander Vic Rehm, boasting a 10-8 season record, will start for Louisville tonight. Right-hander Steve Ridzik (14-10) will be on the hill for the Leafs.

Channel Cats Stocked At Guilford Doing Well

Apparently the channel catfish stocked in Guilford Lake last July are doing well. The Division of Wildlife reports that the channels, stocked as two-three inch fingerlings, are now seven to eight inches long.
The stocking of the lake with 15,000 fingerlings has a two-fold purpose: to furnish fishermen with a catchable, good eating fish, and as a partial control on the rough fish population.
Fisheries personnel say that while channels are omnivorous feeders (fish that eat a variety of things) they consume large quantities of small fish. One of the problems at Guilford, they say, has been attempting to control the undesirable fishes.

Toronto Drops Series Tilt To Louisville

TORONTO (AP) — The opener of the Little World Series, touted as a pitchers' battle, was won by the big bat of Louisville's Mack Jones.
The 21-year-old centerfielder singled and homered to drive in all his team's runs Wednesday night in a 4-1 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs in the first game of the best-of-seven series.
Right-hander Don Nottebart started for Louisville, the American Association champions. He allowed the International League champion Leafs only three hits before he ran into trouble in the ninth inning. The first two men to face him singled. Southpaw Ken MacKenzie put out the fire.

Penguins Host N. Michigan In Homecoming Game Tonight

Undeclared Northern Michigan College p...ides the Homecoming opposition tonight for Youngstown University at Rayen Stadium.
The visiting Wildcats come roaring into town boasting two impressive victories over highly touted foes. In their opener, Northern upset Hillsdale College, a perennial power among small colleges, 29-6, and last week whipped a strong Central Michigan team, 20-3.
Last year the Penguins traveled to Marquette, Michigan, with an undefeated record in three games, but were defeated 7-0 in a rain-soaked contest. That was the first meeting between the two schools.
Penguin coach, "Dike" Beede, has this to say about the Thursday tilt, "Our scouting reports tell us Northern is a team with a big line and powerful backs. We'll be in for a battle, but we'll be ready."
No serious injuries resulted in Youngstown's, 21-7, win over Eastern Michigan last week as the reserves saw plenty of action.
Beede plans no lineup changes in his starting unit which will have Fred Quatro and Bill Davidson at the ends, John Edwards and Larry

Woody Hayes Happy With Team In Drills

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's Buckeyes tapered off their rough work today as their Saturday encounter with Southern California approaches.
The Bucks worked against Trojan offensive patterns Wednesday, and Coach Woody Hayes said it was the third good practice of the week.
It appeared all the Buckeyes would be ready for duty Saturday except sophomore guard Bob Butts sidelined with a severe cleat gash in his leg.
Hayes said senior Bill Wentz probably will start at left halfback Saturday. Wentz, formerly a right halfback, was moved to the left side Monday when Ed Ulmer and Ken Johnson came up with minor leg ailments. However, Ulmer and Johnson should be able to play Saturday, Hayes said.

Salem Booster Club To See Films Tonight

The Salem High coaching staff will show films of last week's football game against Ravenna when the Salem Booster Club meets at 7:30 tonight in the Memorial Building.
Booster President Walt DeJare reports that a piece of equipment used to speed the healing of sprains will also be demonstrated at tonight's meeting. The Booster Club is considering buying the equipment for the high school.

TESTIFY IN BRIBE TRIAL

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two Pittsburgh basketball players testified Wednesday that a dentist tried to get them to shave points in games with offers of money and other lures.
The testimony was given by John Fridley and Dick Falenski, both 21, in the non-jury trial of Dr. Edward H. Sebastian, 35, of McKees Rocks.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. H. T. HYMAN
Cause of Asthma Is Often Found

The spasm of the bronchial muscles that results in the asthmatic attack is usually triggered by accidental exposure to some excitant (allergen) peculiar to the particular individual.

In some instances, the excitant allergen is inhaled, as in the case of the pollens that also cause hay fever.

In other instances, the inhalant allergen is animal dander (horse, cat, rabbit, dog, cattle) or goose feathers that make up the stuffing of a pillow. And sometimes the inhalant allergen is a chemical used in industry. Or in a cosmetic. Or in an insecticide. Or in a medicinal spray.

Again, the excitant allergen may be a food substance that has to be swallowed and absorbed by the intestinal tract before it makes its way to the bronchial muscles by way of the blood stream.

Among the commoner digestant allergens are milk and related dairy products, eggs, wheat and wheat products, fish, strawberries and pork.

On occasions, the excitant allergen is injected in the course of medical treatment. Included in the long list of injectible allergens are serums obtained from the bloods of cows or horses, transfused human blood containing the digestant allergen to which the recipient is sensitive and antibiotics such as penicillin.

And finally, for present purposes, the attack may be triggered by some deeply felt emotional experience.

Perhaps I've already told you sufficient for you to realize that the principal objectives in the treatment of asthma are: 1. To identify the excitant allergen. 2. To avoid or prevent exposure to that allergen.

And, in the accomplishment of these objectives, neither drugs nor climate is of the slightest importance.

But don't let that discourage you. For, if you and your doctor cooperate in a program of medical sleuthing, you may track down the criminal and successfully put him away for the duration of your life.

The culprit may be brother's pup or sister's cat. It may be the down in a pillow or a comforter. It may be the insecticide you use in the kitchen or in the vicinity of the outdoor grill. It may be something to which you're exposed on the job. Or it may be the pork that goes into that spiced meat you picked up at the delicatessen.

With persistence and luck, you're very apt to solve your problem. Then you can throw all the "asthma remedies" in the sea where, as Oliver Wendell Holmes remarked, it'll be "all the better for mankind—and all the worse for fishes."

of Rochester, N.Y., in honor of the food experts from all over the country, this is what we ate:

Gaspacho (a cold raw vegetable soup) flavored with garlic and onion flakes, and crushed basil. Next came curried shrimp. The main course was three breasts of chicken on a plate, one flavored with tarragon, one with saffron and one with paprika, to demonstrate how one basic food can be made into several dishes by varying the spice. With the chicken breasts—nutmeg rice and small green peas with thyme, also a salad with fine herbs. For dessert: vanilla souffle, spiced frosted sponge cake squares, and espresso coffee with cinnamon sticks.

But how about good old-fashioned apple pie? Our hosts came up with a spicy answer:

American Apple Pie

Pastry for 2-crust pie, 3/4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons apple pie spice, 4 to 5 cups sliced tart apples, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Prepare your favorite pastry. Roll out undercrust and fit into a 9-inch pie pan. Combine sugar, salt and spice. Spread half the mixture over pastry-lined pan. Fill with peeled, thinly-sliced apples; sprinkle with remainder of sugar mixture. Dot with butter. Roll and fit upper crust. Turn up lower crust and flute edges together, (this forms a wall to prevent juice from running out). Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 minutes, then in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: What are you—some kind of nut or something? You told a guy who had his eye on a girl who was "going steady" to call her up for a date. This is strictly against the code. Going steady means nobody is supposed to muscle in.

If a girl can't be faithful to a guy when they're going steady, she probably won't be a faithful wife. Your advice encourages chiseling and we don't like it.—OFF OF YOU.

Dear Off of Me: Going steady is no proving ground for marriage. It's merely an agreement that two people want to go with each other exclusively—for the time being.

The steady arrangement does not demand complete faithfulness in the same way marriage does. Both parties are still free to cast about if they wish. True love does not fear competition. It invites it.

Suspicious Wife

Dear Ann: I work from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. My wife has a daytime job for which she is paid the grand sum of $35 a week. This lousies up many of my employment benefits, plus the fact I'm alone all day.

If I shave on my day off she says I'm getting slicked up to see a dame. If a woman speaks to me on the street she says it's someone I'm cheating with. If we are out somewhere and I happen to turn around she says I'm "looking for somebody."

In Same Boat

Dear Ann: Until I read the letter from "Undecided" I didn't think there could be two of us. I hope you tell this woman it will be the biggest mistake of her life if she lets her husband "taper off" his affair with the other woman. If you want a case history here's mine:

After 16 years and four children my husband left me for a younger woman who had a 10-year-old daughter.

When Nick refused to come home I filed for divorce. Last summer we decided to try it again for the children's sake. He hated to hurt this "fine woman," so he asked me to let him gravitate away from her slowly.

Like a chump I agreed. The mistake lasted four months. My children go: wind of the arrangement and when the 15-year-old asked, "Mother, where's your self-respect?" I suddenly realized I didn't have any.

I told him to stay over there all the time because I was going ahead with the divorce. Now he's begging me to take him back. If I had made it clear from the start that I wouldn't tolerate such shabby treatment I might have had a decent marriage today.—M. T. HEAD.

Sticky Buns Are Delicious

Having trouble getting the family to eat a good breakfast? Try this menu: orange or grapefruit juice, ready-to-eat or cooked cereal with milk and a dish of these wonderful sticky buns with the coffee.

It's a Philadelphia recipe. We think it's better than many others we have tried. Recipe is modern, but the old-time breakfast taste is there. Incidentally, for a bedtime snack, buns are perfect with milk.

Sticky Buns (Makes 12)
One-quarter cup warm water (not remaining flour; mix with hand. Turn onto lightly floured board. Knead until smooth and blistered, about 5 minutes.

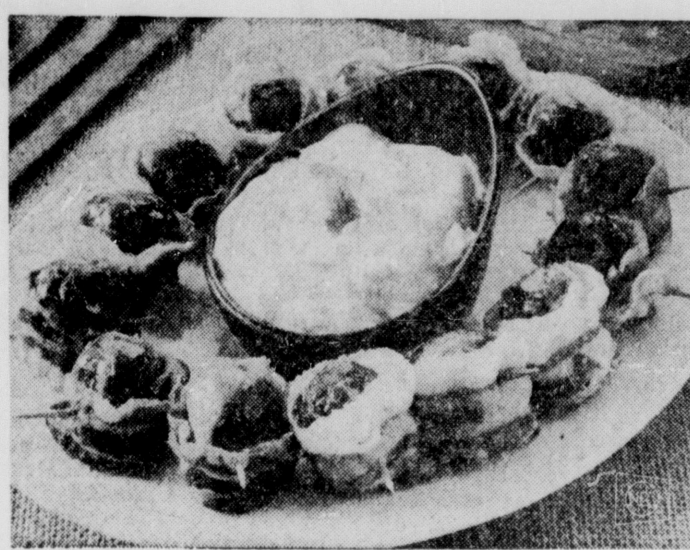

Round up in greased bowl; bring greased side up. Cover with damp cloth. Let rise in warm place (85 degrees F.) until double in bulk, about 1 1/2 hours.

Punch down; round up let rise again until almost double, about 30 minutes.

Spread margarine or butter on bottom of 9x9x2-inch square pan. Sprinkle brown sugar and pecans over margarine. Pat or roll dough into rectangle about 1/4-inch thick. Spread with margarine or butter, brown sugar and cinnamon. Roll as for jelly roll. Cut into 12 slices. Place slices in prepared pan. Pour dark corn syrup over rolls.

Cover and let rise again until double in bulk, 35 to 40 minutes. Heat oven to 375 degrees F. Bake 25 to 30 minutes. Remove from pan immediately.

Try Baked Brussel Sprouts

On our recent food trip to California we discovered a new appetizer — made of their frozen sprouts wrapped in bacon and baked. Served piping hot on food picks.

You may like to dunk them in an anchovy dip. We prefer them as-is.

Brussels Sprouts in Cloaks (4 to 6 servings)
Nine slices bacon, cut in half, one 10-ounce package frozen California brussels sprouts, thawed.

Wrap bacon around sprouts. Fasten with food picks. Arrange in shallow baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 45 minutes, or until bacon is crisp.

Anchovy Dip
One 3-ounce package cream cheese, softened; 1-3 cup mayonnaise,

Record Vote Is Predicted

Ohio Registration Sets Mark

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—From all indications, more voters than ever before have registered in Ohio.

Some of the most populous counties in the state report that, from unofficial counts taken after the registration closed a 9 p.m. Wednesday night, their all-time highs have been shattered.

Cuyahoga County, for instance, reported 839,632 signed up, compared to a record of 767,650 in 1958. Election officials estimated 15,000 to 20,000 of the total will be eliminated as duplicates, which would leave the figure still more than 50,000 above the 1958 mark.

A last day registration of 42,283 swelled the Franklin County total to an unofficial 318,873, far beyond the record of 281,287 set two years ago.

The Hamilton County board said the final total there was expected to exceed 450,000, although complete unofficial figures probably would not be available until today. The county's previous record was 397,889, also set in 1958.

Because of the record registration, officials feel a record number of voters will turn out for the crucial Nov. 8 presidential election. Secretary of State Ted W. Brown estimated the Ohio vote may top the four million mark.

The highest previous turnout for an election was 3,137,821 in 1956 when President Eisenhower carried the state by about 100,000 votes.

Official registration figures may not be ready for a week. Secretary of State Brown said. The figures have to be checked and rechecked to eliminate duplications, mostly to remove registrations by persons who thought they might have been ineligible to vote—but actually were eligible.

Record In Mahoning

Some other unofficial reports: Mahoning County estimated a total of 155,000 passing the record of 147,948 in 1956.

Butler County recorded 86,833 registrations, but the figure did not include those who registered Wednesday at the Middletown branch. However, the previous high of 79,252 in 1958 already was passed.

Clark County appeared to have gone over its record of 56,684 in 1952 with an unofficial total of 60,513.

Montgomery County reported 243,207 registered—26,098 over the record of 1958.

Trumbull County's report of 104,422 surpassed the 1958 record of 92,473.

The Columbiana County election board only had figures for East Liverpool—11,376. It was 102 short

NYLON STOCKINGS ARE FOR THE BIRDS—Jim Madden examines nylon stockings which have been placed over the heads of Milo which plant breeders of the Missouri State Farmers Assn. wish to save for study and observation. New Army Programs Available for Enlistees

The local Army recruiting station announced today that it has received a list of new schools and vocational training programs that will be available for direct enlistments during the next three months.

It was pointed out that in the Army each applicant for enlistment is given an aptitude test before enlisting, and if he qualifies, he will receive a written guarantee of assignment in the job or school of his choice. The Army recruiting office in the post office building, is open Monday through Friday from 10 to 4 p.m.

of the 1958 figure, but officials said this was due to migration from within the city to non-registration districts nearby in the county.

Erie County reported about 28,000 registered, and Lorain County was over 90,000, compared to a 1958 high of 83,343.

County Teachers To Hold Workshop

LISBON — The theme "Meeting the Needs of Youth" will be observed at the Columbiana County Teachers Association's annual workshop Monday at Salineville High School.
